CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO. Feb. 18.—Rain and snow in the southwest had a bearish effect today in the wheat market. Many traders, however, showed a didsposition to take the buying side on declines. Much attention continued to be given to the possibility of serious crop damage resulting from the green bug peat. Opening Fricas, which ranged from it to 21 to lower, with March $1.67 to 1.68 and May $1.57 to 1.68, were followed by a night further setback and then by a raily to about yesterday's finish.

setback and then by a raily to about yesterday's finish.

Corn paralleled the action of wheat.

After opening 14 to 15c lower, including May at 62% to 62%, the market sagged a little further and then fully recovered.

Oats were swayed by the course of other cereals, starting unchanged to 15c off, May 447% to 45c, and later going lower, but then accoring something of an advance.

Downturns in the price of hogs weak-

Downturns in the price of hogs weakened provisions.

Subsequently, uneasiness about reports of the Hessian fly in the soft winter
states tended to bring about an advance, and so, too, did word of considerable export business. The clone was weak, it to 15% and May $1.57½ to 1.58.

Export sales of corn counted subsequently in favor of the buils. Gains, however, fatled to last. Hhe market closed weak, it to it was not been as the same of the subsequently in favor of the buils. Gains,
